Since 1928

Connoisseurs the world over recognize that Ascorti pipes are simply the best. This well cured, century old briar is carved by hand to the optimum shape dictated by the natural grain of the wood itself.

Pipemaking craftsmanship at its very best by the master pipe maker Roberto Ascorti. Ascorti's briar is carefully cured and seasoned until all excess resin and moisture disappear, leaving a feather light and absorbent briar block. No two Ascorti pipes are ever exactly alike, as each is carved by hand to the optimum shape indicated by the natural grain of the briar. Fitted with a hand-carved Lucite stem which never tarnishes and with a glove. Production and availability are limited, but the wait is worth it.

In celebration of Christmas 2005, Tinder Box International had commissioned Roberto Ascorti to handcraft a simply exquisite Ascorti Pipe. This pipe was the wanting desire of any Ascorti pipe smoker or pipe collector in the world. Roberto had come up with a beautiful Business finish pipe in a fancy quarter bent Dublin shape with a silver spigot special yellow acrylic Lucite mouthpiece. The pipe had a special finish that was a traditional trademark of Ascorti Pipe in the 1970's. It is the distinctive "smoking ring" top that Peppino Ascorti made so famous. Only 60 of these pipes were made and allocated to only a very few Tinder Box stores.

Upon hearing of the disastrous hurricanes that ravaged the gulf coast and Florida during this past hurricane season in the United States, Roberto and his wife Silvana wanted to do something special that would benefit a hurricane relief charity. And that they did. Roberto hand carved one very special Ascorti Pipe, a smooth blonde natural finish pipe, in the same shape as the Business. This pipe, as with the Business is stamped "Special Edition Christmas 2005 for Tinder Box." But unlike the series of 60 Business finish that were individually numbered, this special pipe is numbered 00 of 60. This special Ascorti Pipe is custom boxed and accompanied with a special green pure cashmere glove. This pipe is new and unsmoked.

The entire proceeds of this auction will be donated to the Red Cross Hurricane Relief Fund under the names of Roberto & Silvana Ascorti and the winning bidder.

This pipe was on eBay starting Sunday, January 1, 2006 at 3:00 AM EST. This pipe remained on auction for 10 days.

It was won by Mr. Mario Persico of Downy California for the winning bid of $355.01.

INTERNATIONAL

January 11, 2006

Dear Mr. Persico:

Congratulations on having the winning eBay bid on the gorgeous Ascorti pipe so graciously donated by Roberto & Silvana Ascorti.

This pipe is marvelous. I have been in this business for many, many years, and this is one of the best I have ever seen from Roberto. It was inspired by reminiscing of some of the shapes Peppino used to carve back in the late 1970's. Beautiful. You have gotten yourself one gem of a smoking pipe.

A donation of the entire proceeds has been made in your name as well as the names of Roberto & Silvana Ascorti to the American Red Cross Hurricane Relief Fund.

Congratulations again, and thank you for your generosity on behalf of all the hurricane victims that will benefit from your kindness.

Kindest regards,

Gary Blumenthal
President
The Tinder Box International, Ltd.

Excerpt from the Mr. Persico email upon knowing he had the winning bid for this special Ascorti pipe.

Hello

I am very honored to win this pipe auction. I met Roberto at the R.T.D.A. show in Las Vegas in 1999. He made a special calabash pipe for me. I hope he remembers me...

...Again, I am honored to win this auction and proud to include my name with Roberto & Silvana for such a worthwhile cause. Thank you to the Ascorti's and the Tinder Box.

Sincerely,

Mario Antonio Persico
